RED AND BLACK ANNUAL

Class of '39

Fostoria High School

INTRODUCTION..

There should be some tie that will bind one to his school after he leaves. Most people say their school days were the happiest of their life; therefore we have attempted to provide such a tie in making a year book worthy of such a position in the hearts of the students. We have tried to create something that will please, something from which not only the graduating class but also the rest of the school may derive many hours of enjoyment the remainder of their life.

—James Solomon

DEDICATION..

Every great bridge that is built, every great building that is erected costs dearly in human life and sacrifice. All things in this world have a price. The more desirable the goal, the greater is the cost. Each worthwhile thing must be dragged forth from the universe.

We have spent twelve busy, happy years in school. We have lived well during this short period. Even though at times we have seemed thoughtless and unappreciative, we have been conscious of the silent hands that have been working for us.

To you who have made our education possible, to you who have made the sacrifice and paid the price, to you— "OUR PARENTS" we dedicate this book.

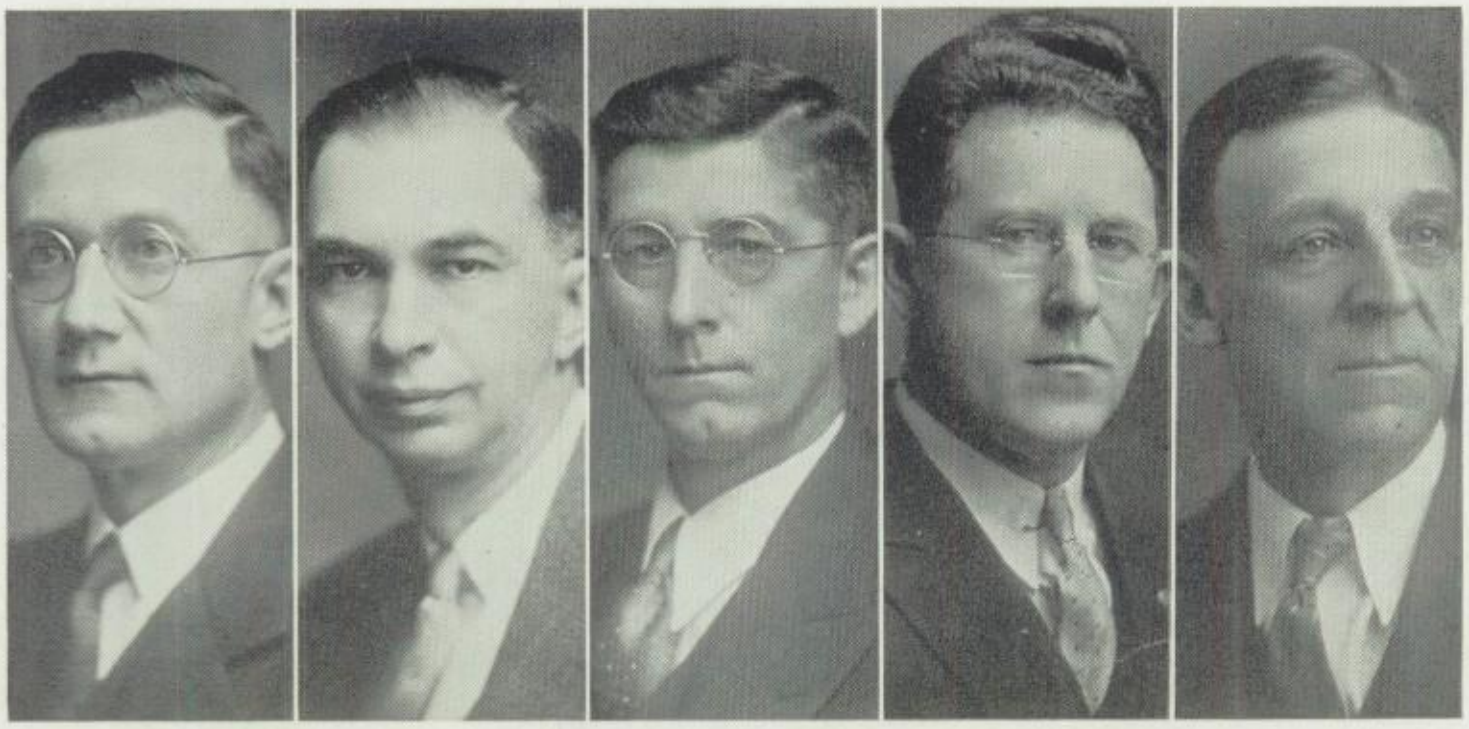
THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

This year the Board of Education again showed its deep concern for the welfare of the student body by undertaking the extensive building program which is still being carried on. There are four new buildings being erected and additions are being made to the high school and other grade schools.

This will make possible a more effective and beneficial program of education by eliminating the over-crowded conditions which existed in nearly all the buildings and laboratories. It will increase and enlarge the number of vocational shops; also, the science laboratories will now be capable of holding all the students.

Through the gracious help of this body of men, it was also made possible to purchase the orgatron. This beautiful instrument has given and will continue to give enjoyment to the students of Fostoria High school and the public.

The students and their parents must surely realize that the Board is deeply concerned with, and is organized to care for the affairs of this school.



H. L. Zemer, president; R. J. Carter, vice president; Harry Leonard, clerk; Floyd Kinnaman and D. D. Schlatter.

THE PRINCIPAL

MISS VERA EGER, B.S.

Bowling Green University
Ohio State

The heavy responsibility of shouldering the problems of six grades of girls had long rested on one person; but finally in 1938, Miss Eger was appointed dean of Junior High girls. Already she has proved herself very qualified for this honor. The Junior High girls look to her and respect her advice.

MISS MABEL J. BOURQUIN, B.S.

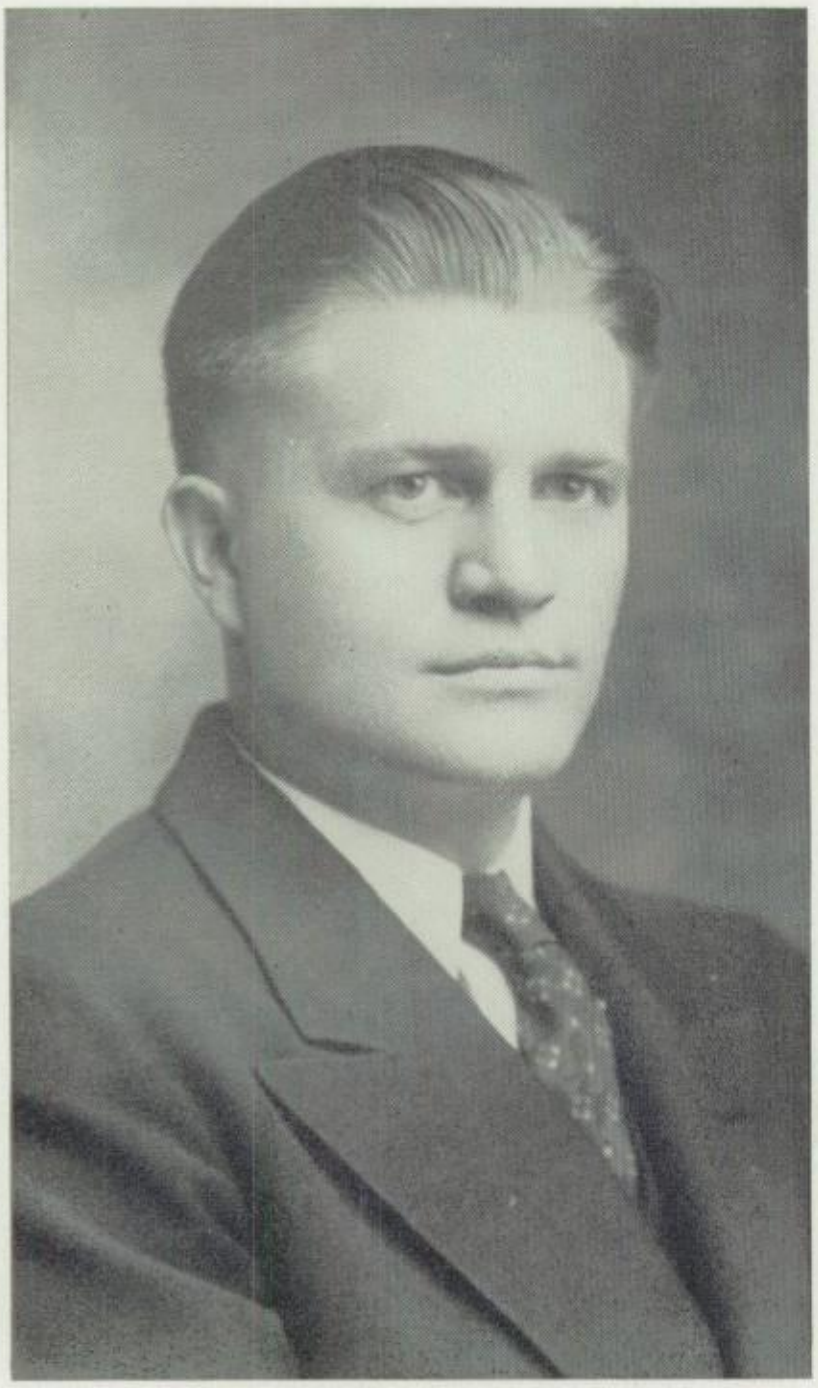
University of Toledo

"The first principle of education is not teaching, but love."

—Pestalozzi

The Dean of Girls of Fostoria Senior High certainly lives up to this ancient quotation. Miss Bourquin has been tireless in her efforts to steer the girls along the right way.

DEANS



BYRON O. STEARNS, B.S.

Ohio Northern
Bowling Green
Ohio State

Just last year appointed Junior Dean of Boys, Mr. Stearns has proved himself to be worthy of the task. His efficiency in dealing with the younger boys of the school has shown noticeable results in the two years he has been dean. He and Miss Eger are welcome additions to the school system and are greatly appreciated by the students.

W. W. NIXON, M.A.

Mount Union
Wittenberg
Ohio State

The man whom many boys depend on for advice and encouragement in their various endeavors is a man who is little publicized but who deserves much recognition, Mr. Nixon, Senior Dean of Boys. He has displayed exceptional patience in dealing with the various problems of the boys. The entire student body appreciates his work immensely.

SENIORS . .

Vice-Pres.—Jack Zemer Pres.—Bill Munsey B. Treas.—Joe Keyes
G. Treas.—Jean Saliers Sec.—Mary E. Herbert

I hold it truth with him who sings
To one clear harp in divers tones
That men may rise on stepping stones
Of their dead selves to higher things.
—Tennyson

So another senior class is leaving Fostoria High. For four years these walls have constituted their lives, their joys and sorrows. As they prepare for their grand exit, they realize that this building has harbored four unforgettable years of lasting friendships.

Attractive personalities, rounded characters, keen determination, and qualities of leadership are the results of these years at Fostoria High.

As a parting thought, the seniors hope they have made this school a little better in return for the unrewarded gifts with which it has bettered them.

JUNIORS . .

B. Treas.—George Knepper Sec.—Coleen Burson Pres.—Clair Kisabeth
G. Treas.—Martha France V.-Pres.—Elaine Saliers

After passing through the period of "green" Freshmen, and "cocky" Sophomores, the class of 1940 made a name for itself by carrying on the traditional activities of the Juniors in an excelled manner. Their Junior dance, an informal and one of the most successful affairs of the kind in the past few years, was quickly followed by the "The Eyes of Tlaloc", the class play, which included some very fine characterizations.

They were outstanding and successful in their ventures because of the tireless efforts of the members of the class.

At the end of a successful year, they look forward with great anticipation to being the Seniors of Fostoria High School next year. Watch for the class with the blue and gray colors.

SOPHOMORES . .

Janice Coppus—440 Jim Maurer—326
Wilbur Franklin—434 Evelyn Shirk—435

The Sophomores have conquered the start of the race; but have long paths to cover before the goal is reached. For this reason, they could be called a name like "In-Between". Nevertheless, they are a vital part of the school's foundation.

The Sophomore class began this year with dancing classes in the upper hall with Mr. Normand Jones as instructor. Then they enthusiastically planned their successful Sophomore party under the able guidance of Mr. C. D. LaRue. In late winter, a candy sale was held in the upper hall. The year was climaxed by a matter of highest importance, the choice of the class colors: green and gray.

The aim of the Sophomores in the future, as upper classmen, is to hold the banners of virtue and knowledge as high as those who went before them, and to be worthy of the fine school which they attend.

FRESHMEN . .

Ralph Birdwhistle—325 Margaret Hill—322 Bill McDaniel—320
James Timanus—321 Wanda Geyer—212 Glen Windsor—439

The Freshmen of this year truly stood up to their code. They entered enthusiastically into the spirit of extra-curricular activities by organizing weekly club periods in which each student did the things he liked best. Also, guided by class advisers and led by home-room presidents, they gave a successful party.

They had representatives in the Student Council enabling them to know the motives for new suggestions, campaigns, etc. The class is best described by these words: "Character cannot be formed without action."

This ever-advancing energetic Freshman group will undoubtedly step into line and meet its everyday tasks with success in future years. Its extensive expansion of social work and athletics will enable the members to carry out their high ideals and sustain the spirit of F. H. S. throughout the coming year.

ANNUAL STAFF . .

ANNUAL HEADS AND ADVISERS

Mr. Smith — Jake Shiff
Mr. Nacci — Bill Wonders
Jack Zemer — Mr. Hosler
Jim Solomor — Joe Keyes

As in years gone by, a group of enterprising personalities again shouldered the huge responsibility of producing an annual that would meet the high standards set by previous publications of the yearbook.

One group was kept busy writing, another working with pictures, another getting ads, and still another group increasing the circulation. The last but probably most important unit was the group of faculty advisers. Mr. Nacci, despite the fact that he probably had more varied duties than any other faculty member, gave constantly of his time and energy. Mr. Hosler, now at Toledo, was a driving force behind the annual for years and deserves much of the credit for the fine annuals produced in the past. Mr. R. O. Smith smoothly stepped into his place the second semester.

This school production, which means so much to the seniors, is a much greater task than it appears to the average student. It is the duty of the editor to make up a dummy book, to decide what pictures to have, what size to make them, where to put them, what to write, and where to place it in relation to the pictures.

The business manager has charge of all the money. He checks on the different sources and pays all bills. The circulation manager has to sell the book to the students and the public. The advertising manager supervises the selling of the ads.

The 1938-39 staff spent a great deal of time on the yearbook and deserves the thanks of everyone for this splendid publication.

BUSINESS STAFF

First Row: Isobel Carmichael, Donna Volkmer, Mildred Spitler, Esther Davis, Jeanette Beatty, Mabel Smith, Anna Foster.

Second Row: Madge Smith, Roger Ridge, Gerald Might, Don Kinnaman, Carl Snyder, Graydon Whitman, Josephine Whitman.

LITERARY STAFF

Second Row: Dorothy Wineland, Marie Greenwood, Shirley Fish, Alice Dinsmore.

Third Row: Eddie Wendel, Le Roy Nichols, Ellsworth Stateler, James Rowles, Philip Kint, Lester Fruth.

JOURNAL STAFF . .

Operating under an entirely new system, as an all-school activity with over 125 members on the staff, the Red and Black Journal, maintained a high standard of journalism throughout the year.

The new efficient setup enabled the staff to produce eleven issues, instead of the usual eight, each one alive with the latest news, feature stories, and special columns.

Action photographs were used for the first time this year to portray high spots in the daily school life. Original features such as "Guess Who", "Inquiring Reporter", and "Little Known Facts About Alma Mater", not only became immensely popular throughout Fostoria High school but received many favorable comments from exchange schools and college papers throughout the state.

The editorial policy this year aimed to give the students a newspaper which approached college papers in literary excellence and page make-up.

Knowing that appearance counts much in newspapers, painstaking care was taken to insure neat, well made-up pages, with good heads and head-lines.

May the succeeding classes continue in the splendid newspaper work that Mr. Nacci has introduced at Fostoria High.

SCRIVENERS . .

Neither fish, flesh, nor fowl; neither club nor class. What do they do? They write.

The Scriveners club is a group of students with some creative promise writing under the supervision of Miss Mabel Bourquin.

The club holds post-lunch meetings twice a month, in the Home Ec. laboratory. No business session is held because Scriveners is an informal group having only one officer, a secretary, who keeps a report of all meetings.

The student's contributions are read or placed on the board and freely criticized. At the end of the year all the contributions that have been accepted by the club are collected in a yearbook entitled "Gossamer Threads".

First Row: Avis Kint, Ethel Zimmerman, Isobel Carmichael, Thelma Schultz.

Second Row: Helen Bixler, Maxine Turner, Joan Kuhlman, Marilyn Harter, Dorothy Wineland, Jean Hall, Theo Groman, Eunice Flechtner, Dorothy Bostic.

Third Row: Philip Kint, Lehr Rangler, Dean Snyder, Bob Hunker, William Shiflet, Louis Manecke, George Knepper, James Howard.

LAMBDA SIGMA . .

"Without a love for books the richest man is poor." Lambda Sigma club chose this thought as its motto when it was founded several years ago.

The club meets twice monthly to further its study of the mystery of literature. What is more fascinating than reading Kipling's immortal "Gunga Din", delving into the wondrous literary reflections of the mystic Wm. Butler Yates and his world of "little people?" Ah, yes, there's gold to be found in literature.

The main social events of this year were the club's May Day Fashion Tea in the school library and the gala party held to honor the senior members. These are pleasant associations which supplement graduation and leave happy memories of a full year.

First Row: Donna Volkmer, Mabel Smith, Ethel Zimmerman, Isobel Carmichael, Mildred Spitler.

First Row: M. France, E. Zimmerman, A. Dinsmore, D. Wineland.

Second Row: G. Knepper, C. Snyder, J. Keyes, E. Wendel.

Mr. C. F. Leiter

Resolved: "That the United States should establish an alliance with Great Britain." With a large class, several experienced debaters, and with this timely question, Mr. Leiter and his debaters had a most enjoyable and profitable year. The first semester was spent in studying the resolution from every conceivable angle, while the second was used to apply that study in debates.

The debate season was opened by the State League tournament in Findlay. Arguments and rebuttals were organized and reorganized until the Port Clinton Speech Convention on March 11. On March 31, the debate season, an unusually full one because of the timeliness of the question at issue came to a climax at the annual Heidelberg Tournament in Tiffin.

OMICRON LAMBDA

First Row: J. Davis, B. Marshall, D. Buck, R. Bersted, D. V. Sahs, V. Tylor, M. Brown, K. Smith, J. Stout, E. Shirk, L. Kiefer, M. France, J. Wade, J. Mansfield, D. Decker, J. Wendel, V. Nichols, E. Saliers, M. France.

Second Row: J. Kuhlman, D. Wineland, T. Shultz, J. Read, M. Herbert, M. Greenwood, A. Dinsmore, I. Carmichael, L. Knight, M. Stevens, B. Miller, S. Fish, K. Fortener, B. Graf, S. Shiff, E. Davis, J. Saliers, J. Hunt, C. Burson.

Third Row: J. Zemer, J. Tsantles, J. Mann, J. Peters, L. Fruth, J. Bulley, P. Schauder, G. Knepper, E. Wendel, J. Keyes, B. Hunker, H. Franklin, J. Howard, P. Parmenter.

The dramatic club of the school is Omicron Lambda, which is organized under the able direction of Mr. C. F. Leiter.

The purpose of this club is to read and present plays. Each member is expected to take part in some production during the year.

The Omicron Lambda club sponsors the annual drama contest in which the various departments, who plan to participate, exhibit their talents for the drama.

They initiated a new form of entertainment by giving a club party in the upper floor of the school where dancing and food was enjoyed.

With the help of Omicron Lambda, the students have become more conscious of dramatics in the school.

SCHOLARSHIP . .

English 9th: J. Spitler, P. Ruhl, B. Warner; English 10th: R. Lentz, A. Cox, M. France; English 11th: E. Saliers, D. Buck, L. Manecke; English 12th: M. Herbert, A. Dinsmore, M. The climax of the school year comes with the annual scholarship tests at Bowling Green and Tiffin. A month before the appointed day in May, the scholastically-minded students of Fostoria High are seen with worried expressions and loaded down with books.

Each student taking part in the tests achieves not only personal honor but honor for his school. This event proves to be an incentive to many students who might otherwise take their actual school work far too lightly.

Not only are the academic students given an opportunity to take these competitive scholarship examinations, but the commercial students also compete in bookkeeping, shorthand, and typing at Tiffin.

This year due to the commendable and unfailing effort of the scholarship team, Fostoria High School's scholastic banner waved proudly high.

ALL-SCHOOL PLAY . .

First Row: Donna Buck, Kathryn Fortener, Thelma Schultz, Esther Davis, Betty Graf, Alice Dinsmore, Ruth Bersted, Joan Kuhlman, Jeanne Hunt, Martha France.

INSECT COMEDY

The all school play is given principally to offer opportunities to the best actors in Senior High to exercise their acting ability.

The production of the Insect Comedy this year proved to be a delightful experience for both the actors and the audience.

The play on the surface was a true fantasy and the characters were ridiculously insect-like; but the deep meaning of the play stood forth as a clever satire of various phases of our present life and civilization.

Cooperation and dependability were the key-notes which determined the success of this play. Without these two elements a comedy of this type with so many characters, could not hope to please the audience.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY . .

First Row: Joe Keyes, Dorothy Wineland, Thelma Schultz, Jean Saliers, Donna Volkmer, Isobel Carmichael, Alice Dinsmore, Bette Graf, Shirley Fish, Esther Davis, Leroy Nichols.

Second Row: Jack Zemer, Eddie Wendel, Gerald Might, Robert Hunker, Ethel Zimmerman, Marie Greenwood, Mary Herbert, Dean Fredericks, Les Fruth, Jon Peter, Charles Le Comte.

The Seniors' contribution to the dramatic calendar of Fostoria High this year was "Judgment Day" by Elmer Rice. It was very aptly portrayed by an efficient cast and under the splendid direction of Mr. C. F. Leiter.

The play itself is a powerful drama laid against a European political background in a country ruled by the iron hand of a dictator. The story concerns the trial of a man and a woman charged with an attempted assassination of the dictator. The entire action takes place in a courtroom, in an atmosphere of tenseness and excitement and reaches a very startling climax.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY . .

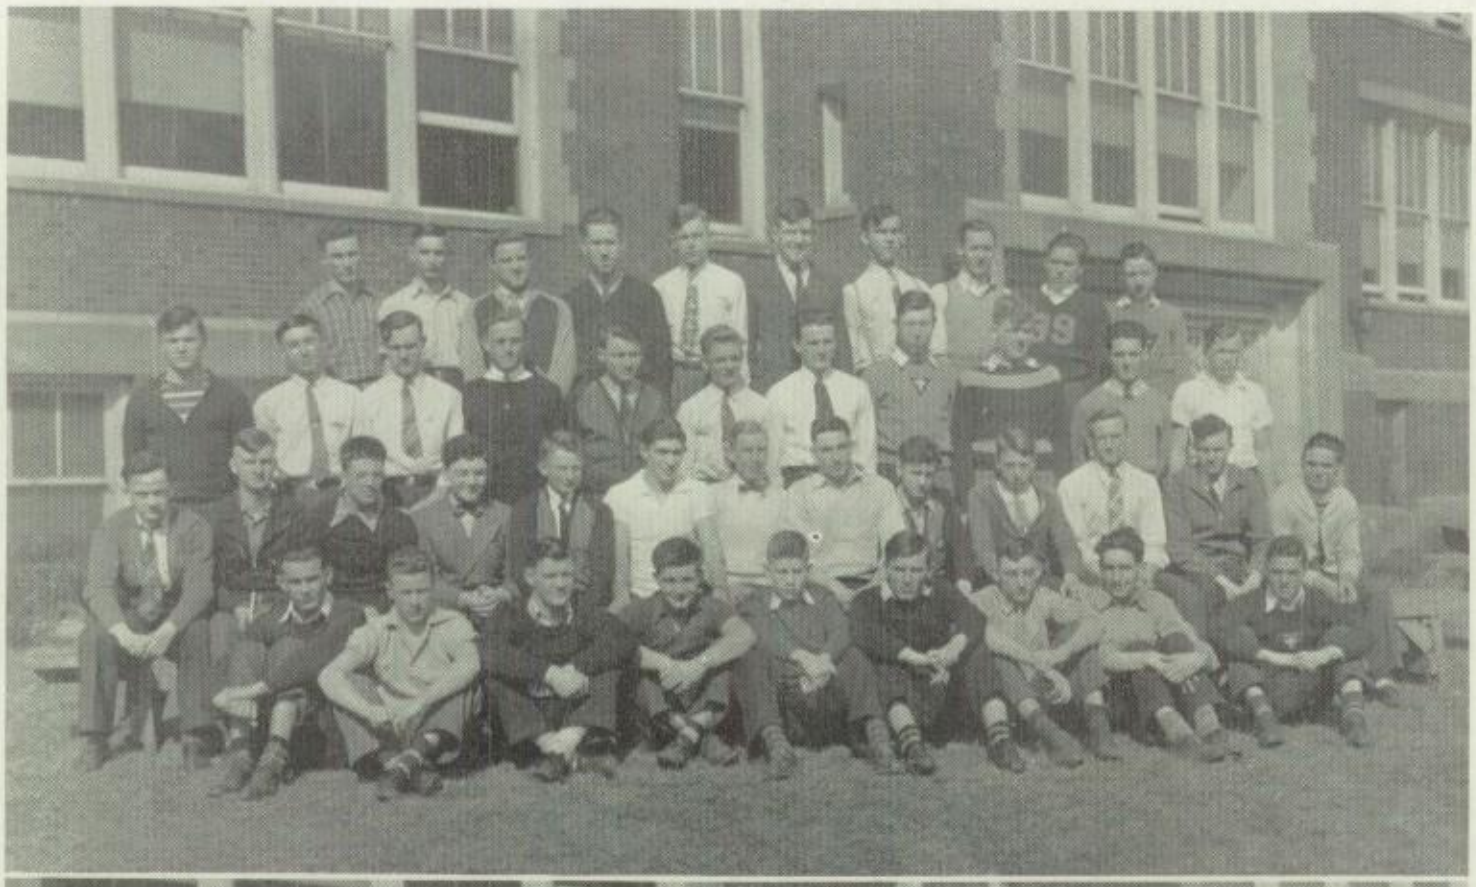
The Juniors displayed their flare for the drama on the stage of Fostoria High by presenting "The Eyes of Tlaloc." It was an entertaining play packed with mystery and thrills and ably portrayed by talented members of the Junior Class.

The plot of the play was centered around the greedy Indian god "Tlaloc" and how he affected the lives of Nancy Howe, her uncle and others who eventually were drawn into the sinister web of the play. Intermingled in the weird plot was a romantic interest that added to the play.

Credit is due to Mr. Leiter for his direction, to the stage crew for sound and stage effects, and to the cast for its fine cooperation.



SENIOR HI-Y . .

First Row: J. Peters, A. Basinger, C. Le Comte, B. Munsey, J. Keyes, P. Parmenter, T. Feasel, J. Solomon, B. Snavely.

Second Row: J. Rowles, J. Zemer, L. Fruth, J. Tsantles, J. Mann, J. Shiff, H. Franklin, P. Ward, E. Wendel, J. Buckingham, L. Brink, J. Barnes, D. Switzer.

Third Row: J. Shrider, P. Kint, G. Might, A. Zuelzke, G. Whitman, R. Ridge, J. Aldrich, R. Holden, E. Statler, G. Logsdon, C. Greenfield.

Fourth Row: L. Nichols, A. Dillon, W. Wonders, W. Duffield, D. Kinnaman, C. Snyder, B. Hunker, J. Howard, R. Haines.

JUNIOR HI-Y . .

First Row: L. Lather, H. Hakes, C. Statler.

Second Row: E. Kuhn, J. Smith, J. Myers, R. Hill, C. Kisabeth, G. Snavely, P. Schauder, T. McDonel, C. Fox.

Third Row: H. Kirian, L. Cramer, L. Switzer, A. Clark, A. Russell, G. Clark, J. Harrison, C. Mottram, R. Bates, M. Fouts.

Mr. George Evans

Hi-Y, the outstanding boys' club of the high school, started with a small group of eight in 1922 and has grown until its membership now numbers 70 Juniors and Seniors who hold weekly noon luncheons on Wednesday to discuss important service projects and the problems of modern youth.

Frequently, outstanding men in the community, speak to the boys on vocational opportunities and other subjects very timely to boys of high school age.

The outstanding project of this year was the "Sweetheart" Banquet, an annual formal affair. Two mixers were also held, one for the Senior High and one for the Junior High boys.

The Hi-Y and G.R., following an annual custom, held impressive early morning Easter services during Holy Week.

Also in conjunction with the G.R., the Hi-Y boys sold refreshments at football and basketball games and sponsored one of the basketball game dances.

This year, a new custom—that of electing officers each semester—was inaugurated by the Hi-Y to give more boys an opportunity to develop leadership, ability, and experience in conducting a group.

The officers who served the first semester were: President, Jim Solomon; vice-president, Jack Zemer; secretary, Dean Snyder; and treasurer, Jake Shiff.

The officers for the second semester were: President, Graydon Whitman; vice-president, Gerald Might; secretary, Pete Parmenter; and treasurer, Jake Shiff.

SR. GIRL RESERVES . .

First Row: B. Miller, P. Miller, P. Wagner, I. Carmichael, M. Herbert, M. Greenwood, A. Dinsmore, S. Shiff, J. Saliers, M. Spitler, D. Volkmer, V. Tyler, M. Smith.

Second Row: R. Young, A. Kint, K. Souder, W. Tyson, N. Deerwester, C. Doty, J. Myers, A. Rothenbuhler, H. Bixler, A. Lewis, J. Beatty, B. Peters, H. Steinhour, M. Turner, P. Feasel, L. Braman, C. Deckard, J. Whitman, P. Echelbarger.

Third Row: J. Connor, M. Smith, G. Stagger, B. Clary, E. Niday, T. Groman, J. Stout, M. Forbess, E. Zimmerman, R. Kirk, J. Culp, C. Coppus, G. Dennis, S. Fish, B. Ridenour, B. Crowe.

Fourth Row: M. France, E. Saliers, C. Burson, J. Davis, B. Marshall, M. Arnold, D. Bostic, M. Harter, J. Welling, A. Johnson, B. Hutchins, B. Graf.

Fifth Row: J. Kuhlman, L. Knight, J. Hall, K. Morel, F. Talmadge, M. Wank, D. Wineland, K. Fortener, D. Buck.

Mrs. Davis

G. R. OFFICERS

Sylvia Shiff, Marie Greenwood, Alice Dinsmore, Mary Herbert, Isobel Carmichael, Donna Volkmer, Jean Saliers, Pauline Wagner, Mildred Spitler, Virginia Tyler.

Miss Isabel Hunt

Under the able direction of Miss Isabel Hunt and Mrs. Mildred Davis, this outstanding girls' organization of Fostoria High School has just completed a most enjoyable and profitable year.

The G. R.'s lived up to their code of giving service by cooperating with Hi-Y in the maintenance of the hot dog stand at the football games. They brought cheer into the lives of Fostoria's shut-ins by singing Christmas carols and distributing valentines in the Old Folk's Home, the hospital, and the Convalescent Home. Each triangle made two scrap-books for the benefit of children in the hospital. In this project, the club gave each girl an opportunity to feel that she was doing something worthwhile. At Christmas, they gave service to the Welfare Department of the city by providing books and toys for the needy convalescent children. They also cooperated with Hi-Y in the annual Holy Week and Easter services.

JR. GIRL RESERVES . .

First Row: D. Breidigan, I. Knepper, J. Jacoby, W. Geyer, J. Spitler, J. Huston*, L. Rothenbuhler, A. Opperman, D. Stambough, J. Oyler, J. Coppus.

Second Row: L. Bostic, R. Flechtner, C. Basehore, J. Mergenthaler, E. Saxton, M. Sheward, K. Smith, M. Stevens, M. Segner, B. Cooper, J. Atwell, P. Hicks, G. Berger, F. Lynch, B. Bucher.

Third Row: D. Stout, H. Solomon, J. Stubblefield, M. Bullock, A. Anderson, R. Gibat, D. Rowe, B. Lord, N. Smith, S. Creeger, M. Raymont, D. Sauler, B. Stoddard, J. Mansfield, J. Wendel, M. Preis, J. Jacobs, M. Lee, A. Borough, M. Hill.

Fourth Row: M. Clark, D. Johnson, M. Walters, M. Davis, J. Graf, H. Fling, D. Harrison, M. France, R. Hoffman, G. Jones, L. Jones, V. Nichols.

Fifth Row: R. Huffman, J. Zemer, A. Ford, B. Anderson, W. Stone, D. Turner, P. Ruhl, E. Brink, J. Knepper, J. Wade, E. Shirk.

*Withdrawn

The club gave valuable service to its members by presenting helpful and constructive advice on attaining poise and personality. The weighty problem of choosing a vocation was discussed and the program helped many to decide on their life's work. The club sponsored a mixer for the girls of the high school, thus aiding them in their social training.

The White Triangle presented as a Christmas program a very cleverly written original pageant using the G. R. code as a fitting gift for the Christ Child. The Purple Triangle, with its unusual musical talent, presented a very beautiful and impressive Easter program with music as a theme.

GIRLS' HOME ECONOMICS . .

Miss Lucy Swingle
Miss Kathryn Marshall

First Row: E. Saxton, M. Zeller, E. Niday, J. Soles, B. Howard, M. Brombley, E. Shock, L. Miller, E. Hayfield, B. Wise, D. Stout, M. Saxton, B. Washler, D. Thompson, P. Hicks, J. Anderson, L. Braman.

Second Row: B. Price, W. Tyson, C. Basehore, P. Smith, M. Yenser, N. Deerwester, D. Smith, J. Knowles, A. Brough, G. Solomon, K. Smith, B. Thomas, S. Creeger.

Third Row: C. Doty, P. Gossard, M. Segner, B. Cooper, L. Rader, C. Deckard, M. Perkins, K. Pappas, F. Snavely, D. Breidigan, M. Bullock, P. Boday, J. Atwell.

This was a successful year for the Modern Maids under the leadership of Miss Swingle and Miss Marshall. They held demonstrations, discussions, several social affairs and money-making projects. An original idea this year was a scrapbook compiled by the girls and submitted to the Home Economics meeting in Columbus. In their Mother's Day program on May 8th, the group presented a style review. Another important occasion for them was the Annual Senior dinner.

BOYS' HOME ECONOMICS . .

First Row: Tarris, Rose, Barnes, Franklin, Switzer, Statler.

Second Row: Harshman, Tribby, Brink, Logsdon, Nye, Manecke.

Third Row: Haines, Ogg, Buckingham, Mohr, Leonard.

One used to smile when speaking of a group of boys taking instruction in cooking, but not any more. In high schools throughout the country, Boys' Home Ec. classes are every bit as popular as Chemistry or Algebra. Fostoria High School is one of the schools that can boast of a Boys' Home Ec. club, more informally called the Bachelor's Daze.

The boys sponsor candy sales that make the girls green with envy, and incidentally the candy is delicious.

Much fun has been made of these "bachelors" in their white aprons, but their desire for this club has proved to be a very sensible and practical one.

STUDENT COUNCIL . .

First Row: G. Knepper, E. Shirk, M. France, E. Saliers, C. Burson, M. Herbert, W. Geyer, J. Solomon.

Second Row: M. Hill, J. Coppus, J. Saliers, D. Wineland, M. Greenwood.

Third Row: L. Fruth, J. Timanus, B. McDaniel, J. Keyes, W. Franklin, J. Mauer, R. Birdwhistle.

Fourth Row: C. Kisabeth, J. Zemer, G. Windsor, B. Munsey.

The Student Council is composed of all home room presidents of the seventh, eighth, ninth, and tenth grades together with all the Junior and Senior class officers. It also included the Hi-Y and G. R. Presidents plus two elective Senior members. This year as usual the council made it a point to do things which it thought would tend to better the school life of the Fostoria High students.

It has been the annual duty of the Council to sponsor the Magazine Campaign. The money which is appropriated has always been used for some school need.

FRESHMAN PLAYERS . .

First Row: M. Dray, N. Smith, B. Bucher, M. Milligan, M. Davis, J. Graf, J. Spitler, M. Ruehle, B. Church, A. Anderson, B. Anderson, E. Cramer, J. Schultz, D. Lewis, L. Stauffer, R. Clark, M. Berger.

Second Row: A. Greenfield, D. Hall, K. Groves, A. Ford, M. Price, W. Geyer, I. Knepper, E. Gair, I. Copley, P. Ruhl, N. Raubenolt, C. Opperman, B. Snyder, A. Opperman, H. Johnson, J. Friesner, D. Stambaugh.

Third Row: M. Davidson, M. Hill, L. Lind, P. Walhs, B. Warner, J. Jacoby, M. Bea, R. Birdwhistle, V. Baker, M. Wetherill, C. Rouse, R. Cohn, M. Seiple, C. Shiff, D. Harrison.

These striving young students, who have just begun their school careers as Freshmen, have been building under the watchful guidance of Mrs. Hutchinson, a solid foundation for later membership in the Omicron Lambda. While increasing their knowledge in histrionics, they have attained many honors for their splendid presentations.

They have taken a very active part in the dramatic activities of the school and will go far as members of other organizations.

They have three more years in which to reach new heights and will surely give many worthwhile productions.

AUDUBON NITESAK . .

First Row: W. Alge, D. Lapidos, E. Welling, G. Windsor, R. Fa-t, V. Baker, B. McDaniel.

Second Row: B. Clore, J. Mergenthaler, L. Steinhour, J. Stubblefield, J. Oyler, B. Stoddard, M. Seiple.

Mr. O. K. Caldwell
Mrs. Mildred Hutchinson

These enterprising Freshmen and Sophomores made great progress in their quest for every day scientific knowledge this year.

Mr. Caldwell, their adviser, saw to it that they came to have a greater respect for nature by conducting nature studies, star studies and hikes in the open. These opportunities made them more aware of the necessity of the complex objects about them which have as important a role in this universe as man does.

It is the thought of everyone that they continue in their work and realize a large profit from it.

Miss Virginia Crawford

First Row: James Solomon, Lester Fruth, Alice Dinsmore, Jack Zemer, Mary Herbert, Dean Snyder, Marie Greenwood, Bill Munsey.

Second Row: Eunice Flechtner, Virginia Tyler, Jean Saliers, Ethel Zimmerman, Donna Volkmer, Isobel Carmichael, Phyllis Echelbarger, Coleen Burson, Elaine Saliers, Jeanne Hunt, Dorothy Wineland.

Third Row: Thomas Feasel, George Knepper, Jon Peter, Joe Keyes, Jake Shiff, Carl Snyder, Graydon Whitman, LeRoy Nichols, Allan Russell.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY . .

The Fostoria chapter of the National Honor Society took another step forward this year and became an active society. As the name implies, this honorary organization rewards a certain percent of the students of the Senior and Junior classes who possess the desired qualities of character, service, scholarship, and leadership. Membership the first semester is restricted to five per cent of the senior class. In the second semester, an additional ten per cent of the Senior class and five per cent of the Junior class are admitted.

As was stated before, the society became an active one and undertook several projects this year. These included the drawing up and publishing of a handbook (very beneficial to new students), the revision of the club constitution, the letters of congratulation written to all those students who attained high enough scholastic ratings to be on the honor roll, and last but not least, the impressive induction ceremony which ushered in the new members.

It was due to the capable direction and untiring efforts of Miss Crawford that this year, for the first time, the National Honor Society became an active organization.

ORGAN . .

MAGAZINE CAMPAIGN

This year's campaign started very slowly; but the competition at the end was so keen that it almost ended in a Junior and Senior class brawl. If that spirit had prevailed from the start, the school would have made double the amount of money it did but the results were good. It was through the funds of the campaign that it was possible to purchase a sound motion picture machine, a public address system, and this last year, the electric Orgatron organ.

This campaign was beneficial to each individual student in the improvements that were made possible to the school. It also developed qualities that will make him successful in business.

First Row: D. Wineland, C. Adams, A. Dinsmore, L. Nichols, D. Kinnaman, J. Zemer.

Second Row: B. Lowe, A. Burkhart, J. Stubblefield, P. Hicks, N. Smith, K. Souder.

Third Row: M. Clark, V. Welsh, V. Tyler, M. Harter, J. Warner, L. Miller, C. Burson, R. Bersted.

STOP!

THE TRAFFIC PATROL . .

George Knepper, Roger Ridge, Norman Stout, William Duffield, Tom Feasel, Jon Peter, Jack Zemer, Jake Shiff.

Several of Walter Winchell's famous orchids to these brave souls who protect our lives against menacing traffic as we leave school every noon and night! They brave the wind, the rain, the snow, and most of all, the teacher's glances when they leave just as the next day's assignment is about to be given.

The organization was founded a number of years ago under the auspices of the Fostoria Automobile club in order to prevent accidents at the intersections of High and Perry Streets and High and Main Streets.

STUDENT NURSES . .

Sitting: Joan Kuhlman, Phyllis Echelbarger, Jane Davis, Mildred Spitler, Isobel Carmichael, Maxine Schwab.

Standing: Helen Bixler, La Vonne Dillon, Georgia Kellums, Jane Culp, Thelma Shultz, Theodocia Groman.

"Ouch! I cut my finger in Manual," says a Seventh grade boy as he holds up a somewhat dirty forefinger dripping with blood.

He doesn't really have to worry, however, because one of the efficient student nurses will soon fix it. Due to these capable young women and the watchful eye of their adviser, Miss Kanable, many serious consequences have been avoided.

All who have ever been suddenly taken ill in school realize what a valuable service these girls perform for Fostoria High School. They cope with emergencies at any time and place.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB . .

First Row: Jeanetta Connor, Maxine Forbess, Betty Rhoads, Jake Shiff, Pierre Haver, La Vonne Sampson, Betty Ohls, Edna Karp.

Second Row: Glada Smith, Sarah Knox, Betty Peters, Bernadine Mosier, Carolyn Coppus, Noreen Snook, Betty Hutchins, Margaret Omlor.

Third Row: Gladys Dennis, Phyllis Echelbarger, Helen Steinhour, Charles Greenfield, Dorothy Madden, Ardeth Rothenbuhler, Clara Kimble, Mary Janis Schuh.

Miss Donelda McDonald
Miss Lucille Kanable

The Commercial Club was reorganized again this fall. Its purpose is to study and discuss the problems of business facing students in school life and after graduation. Any senior in commercial classes is eligible to join this club.

The meetings, social and business, are entirely planned by the members of the club. They take field trips, hold meetings consisting of reports on various types of machines used in business offices, and read plays pertaining to business and ideal secretaries.

THE PALETTE . .

The Palette is the art club of Fostoria High School and was founded through the efforts of Miss Agnes Kircher and the Senior High art students during the school term of 1938-39.

The club meets every fourth Monday evening of each month. At the meetings discussions center around the lives and works of the master artists both old and modern.

Field trips were taken to the Toledo Museum of Art and the Queen of the Holy Rosary Cathedral during the year to enable the study of the applications of art during Ancient, Medieval, and Modern times.

The club's purpose is to promote art appreciation in the school and in the community. It is hoped that the club will become larger next year and create a greater appreciation for art in Fostoria high.

First Row: Loretta Kiefer, Jacqueline Knowles, Letha Rothenbuhler, Donna Stout.

Second Row: Don Kinnaman, Gaylord Clark, Bob Hunker, Ellsworth Stateler.

Miss Agnes Kircher

ACCOUNTING . .

The work in the Accounting Department is under the supervision of Mr. G. D. Knepper. The duties of the accountants are to issue balance sheets at the end of each month, type checks, special statements for the separate organizations when they are requested to do so, do special typing, and keep an account of the transactions of all organizations and departments.

One of the highest honors for a bookeeping student is to be selected as an accountant.

Jeanetta Connor, Betty Rhoads, Carolyn Coppus.

Mr. G. D. Knepper

LIBRARY STAFF . .

Quiet and unassuming are the girls who make up the library staff. They receive little recognition; nevertheless they go about doing their tasks with the utmost care. Filing books and magazines, helping students with reference material, these are the tasks of the library staff.

Their supervisor, Miss Scott, is always willing to give her time to any student who may need it.

First Row: Bernadine Mosier, Mabel Smith, Jeanne Hall, Betty Marshall.

Second Row: Phoeba Feasel, Rolda Kirk.

Miss Hannah Scott

MUSIC . .

"Music! soft charm of heav'n and earth;
Whence dids't thou borrow thy auspicious birth?
Or art thou of eternal date,
Sire to thyself, thyself as old as Fate?"

Music is the universal language "loved by some, known by all". Longfellow once said that singers were sent upon the earth to bring heav'n back to man. In saying this, he brought out the aptitude of a song in expressing the feeling of beauty. Whether it be the quiet serene beauty of love or loneliness, or the gay, agile beauty of frivolity and mirth depends upon the song itself; but no matter what kind it is, song invariably expresses a distinct emotion. To appreciate life to its fullest extent, one naturally has to love song and know music either as a listener or as a singer.

For those of the high school who wish to enjoy music as a singer does, the chorus, glee clubs, and choirs offer a wide opportunity to do so. The activity of these groups is great. One of their outstanding achievements this year was the operetta, "An Old Kentucky Garden". In addition to this, they sang at festivals and gave several concerts, the two outstanding ones being in collaboration with the other musical organizations of the school: the band and orchestra. The latter offers opportunities for musical expression to those who prefer instrumental music which, as the vocal song, has magnetic powers of expression, either melancholic or gay. Peter Newell says:

"She played upon her music box
a fancy air by chance;
And straightway all her polka-dots
began a lively dance."

This was a full year for the instrumental department, too. The band, playing its routine marches and school songs during football season, had a busy fall; while the orchestra practiced many an extra hour in mastering the numbers for the State Orchestra contest in the Spring.

In addition to these two special activities they, as the vocal department members, gave several concerts during the year.

Art Zuelzke

E. E. Smith

W. T. Fisher

When newspaper headlines proclaim first place for a Fostoria High instrumental or vocal group, people shake their heads and say: "Fostoria certainly is lucky to have so many talented people."

Fostoria has no more "talented" people to begin with than any other school of its size. What we do have are two men: Mr. E. E. Smith and Mr. W. T. Fisher who take these young people with "talent" and develop accomplished musicians.

When Mr. Smith leads his band in public concerts, critics applaud. When Mr. Fisher directs his vocalists in the "Messiah", music lovers cheer lustily. When Art Zuelzke struts his stuff, across the gridiron in his spotless white uniform, deftly twirling his shining baton, girls' hearts come to attention.

Yes, Mr. Smith, Mr. Fisher, and the F.H.S. drum major bring out the best in every Fostoria High musician.

PIT ORCHESTRA . .

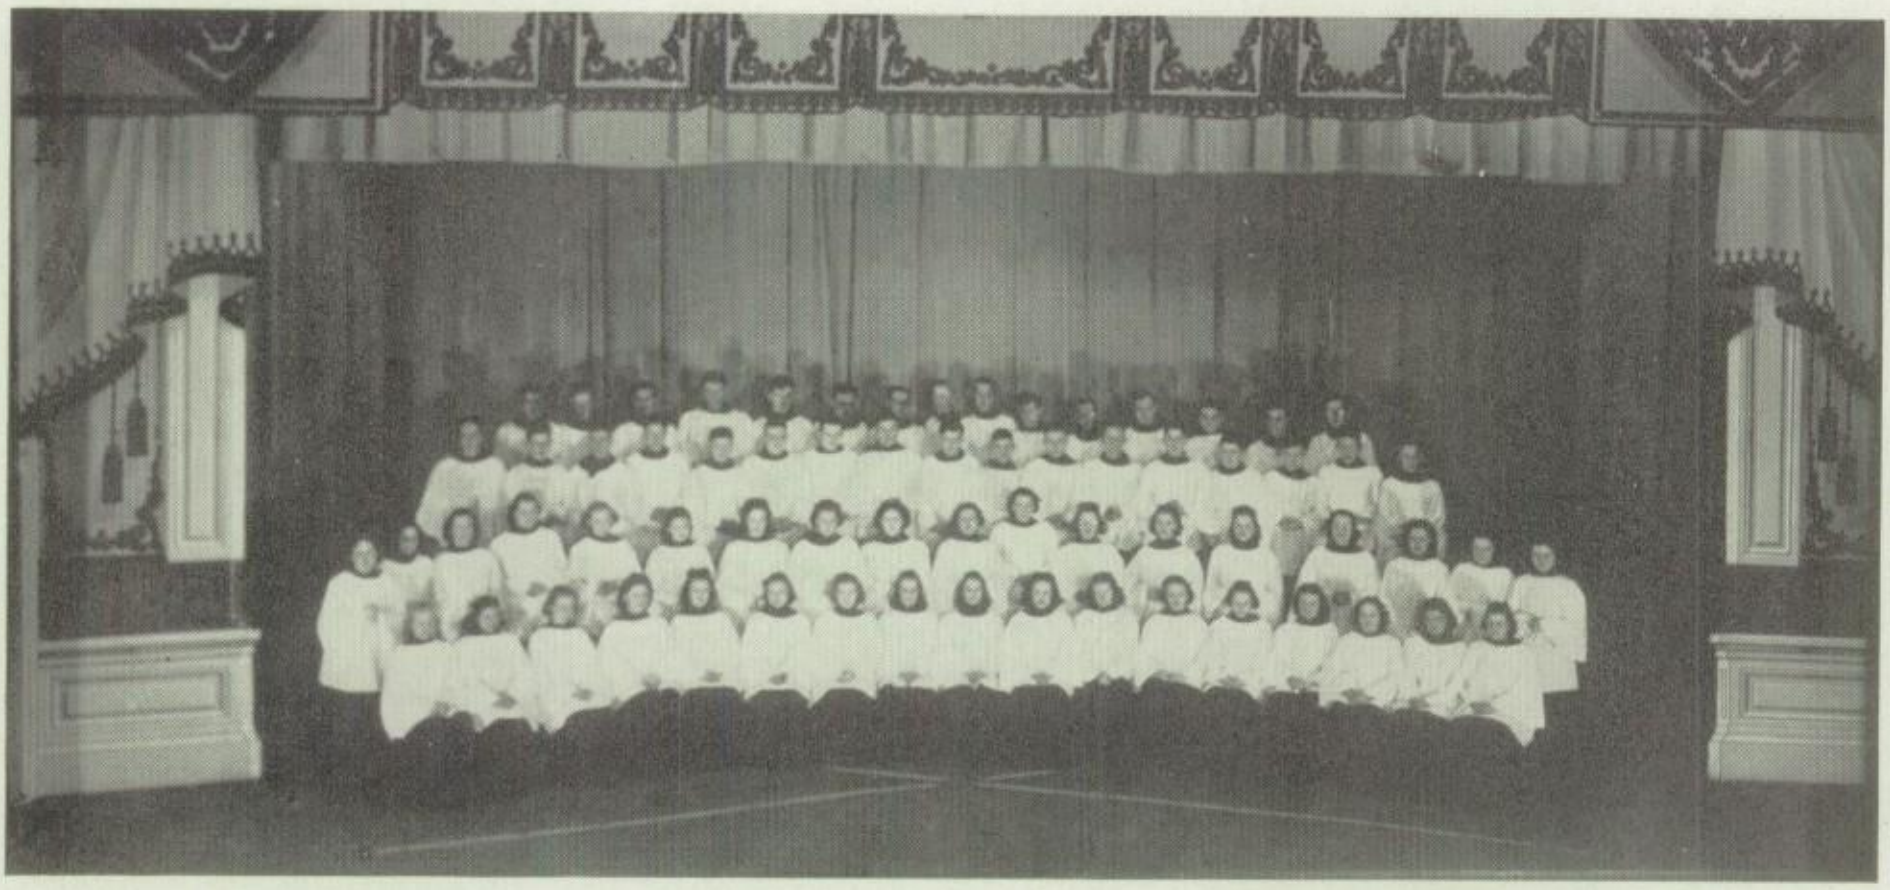
Music for the chapel programs, all-school and class plays, and many other school activities during the year is furnished by an up-and-coming organization of the school, the pit orchestra.

The capable young people who make it up are chosen because of their special ability in playing a particular instrument. They have to work extra hours before and during school to "put the finishing touches" on their performances. As a result of their earnest toil, the popularity of their organization has greatly increased.

Martial music, light, and airy tunes have all been played equally well to lighten the hearts and minds of the students and the visitors to the building.

The Fostoria High School Pit Orchestra, under the capable and efficient direction of Mr. E. E. Smith, has done very fine work in the past and will continue in the future to do work which is equally as admirable.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR . .



First Row: Martha France, June Welling, Lucille Lind, Phyllis Echelbarger, Maxine Forbess, Mary Herbert, Madge Smith, Betty Miller, Patty Miller, Donna Volkmer, Jean Saliers, Ruth Bersted, Elota Hayfield, Bessie Wise, Leah Mae Workley, Ardeth Rothenbuhler, Gladys Dennis.

Second Row: Wanda Tyson, Margaret Hill, Jean Stout, Betty Clarey, Patricia Hicks, Vanda Nichols, June Myers, Jeanette Beatty, Marjorie Sheward, Joyce Pillsburg, Gladys Zeller, Margaret Stevens, Jean Hunt, Betty Cooper, Lois Knight, Lois Schlosser, Dorothy Smith.

Third Row: Arthur Clark, Julian Bulley, Lester Fruth, Wilbur Franklin, Donald Bercaw, Philip Brubaker, Mervin Rose, John Shrider, Robert Might, Gaylord Snavely, LeRoy Nichols, Don Estes, Joe Keyes, Joe Bates, Jack LeComte, Eugene Patterson, Verton Rhoades.

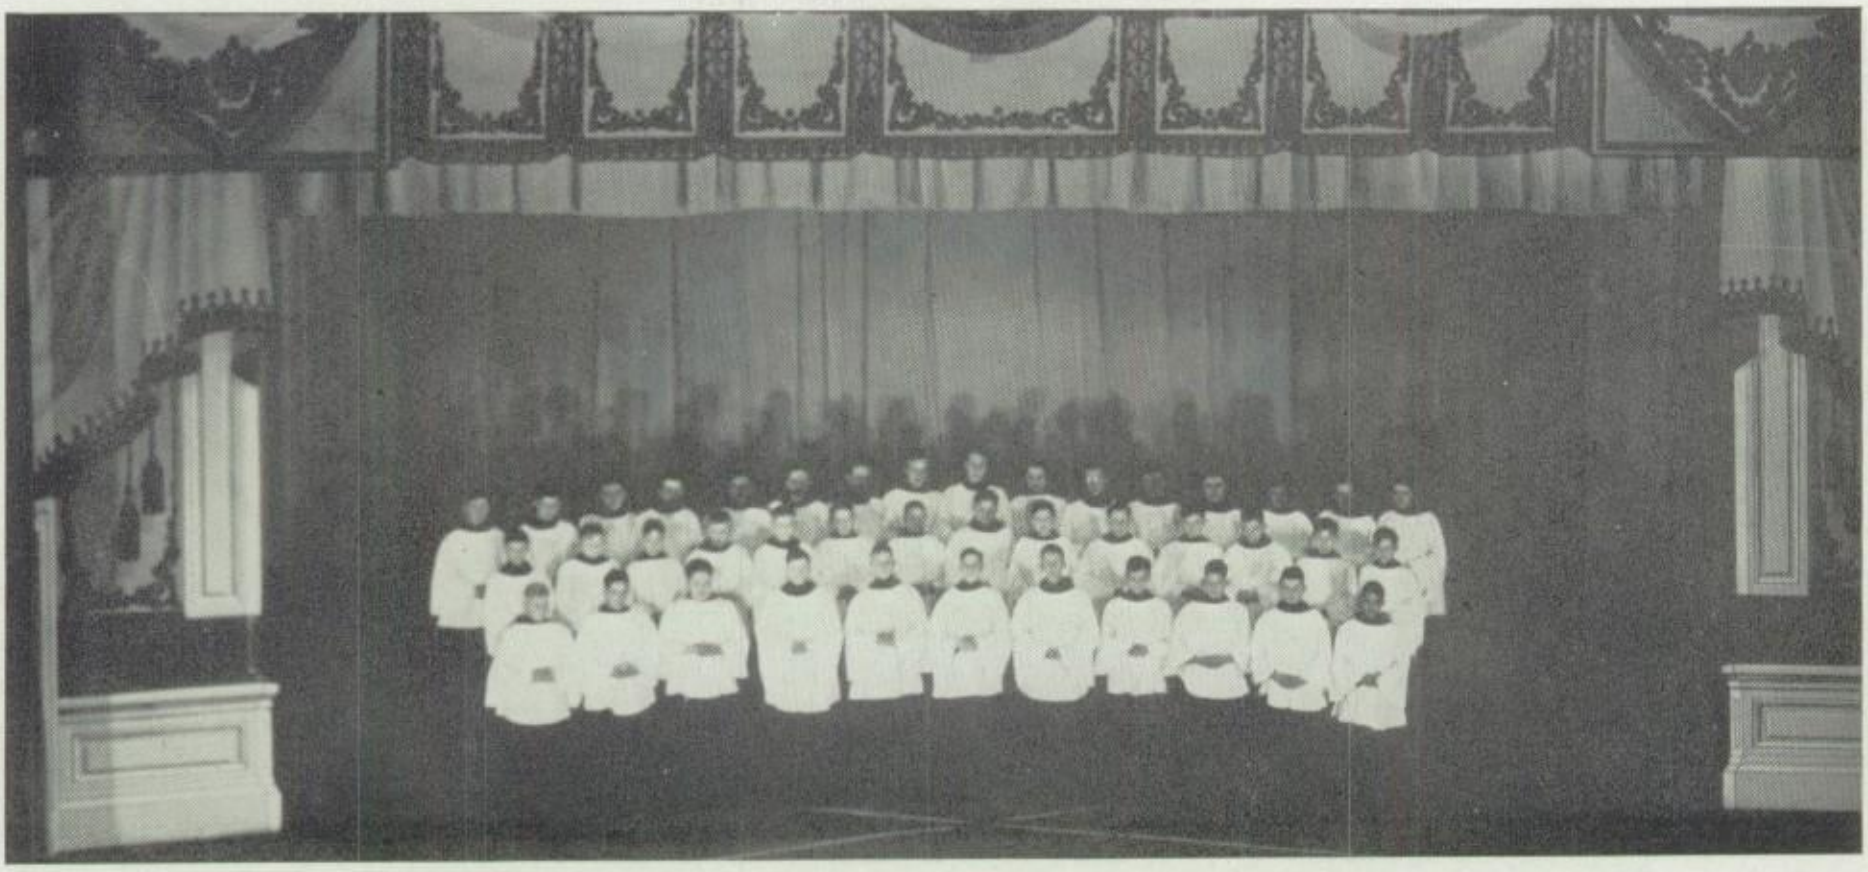
Fourth Row: Jon Peter, Clair Kisabeth, Don Kinnaman, Gaylord Clark, Robert Hunker, Harold Franklin, Don Boroughf, Edmund Wendel, Arthur Zuelzke, Lewis Brink, James Myers, Jack Zemer, Paul Rupert.

This makes the fourth consecutive year that the A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Wallace T. Fisher, has been organized. Throughout this time, it has participated in many musical activities and has attained much success as a vocal group.

Among the choir's outstanding activities this year, was the "Messiah" which with the cooperation of the community chorus, was a splendid success. Much appreciation was shown by the audience in the acceptance of this work. The choir also proved its ability as a musical organization in the State contest.

When singing for a teachers' meeting in Toledo, the choir made several recordings of its music. These recordings will live on and the choir will never be forgotten; for the echo of their lovely voices still remains.

BOYS' A CAPPELLA CHOIR . .



First Row: Harold France, Harry Stephenson, Vernon Newhouse, Rudy Walters, John Burgbacher, Carter Clark, Carl Rouse, Rudy Cohn, Wayne Picket, Martin Groman, Calvin Roberts.

Second Row: Nate Hatfield, Harvey Wolfarth, Harvey Bostic, Raymond Boday, Dale Harrison, Gene Newell, Harold Struble, Robert Wilcox, Jr., Russell Smith, Albert Rhoads, Don Scott, Jay Davis, Caral Fouts.

Third Row: Donald Bercaw, Alfred Woods, Phillip Brubaker, Mervin Rose, John Shrider, Arthur Clark, Robert Hunker, Gaylord Clark, Donald Boroughf, Jim Myers, Arthur Zuelzke, Eugene Patterson, LeRoy Nichols, Jack LeComte, Verton Rhoads, Joe Bates.

Among the vocal music organizations of the school, one is proud to have the Boys' A Cappella Choir. It shows that the school is improving in ability to appreciate good music. This group is made up of music-minded boys and any school that can boast of such a group should be congratulated.

Football, basketball, etc. are forgotten when these boys begin to sing. For a group of boys to show such avid interest in music is indeed a compliment to the music department of the school.

Every year these boys work hard and strive to rank high in vocal contests. May they always achieve the goal which they strive for!

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB . .

First Row: Hicks, Forbess, Echelbarger, Sheward, Frank, Pillsburg, France, Raymont, Creeger, Shiff, Workly, Cooper, Smith, Schlosser, Stevens.

Second Row: P. Miller, B. Miller, France, Harter, Welling, Lee, Turner, K. Smith, Myers, Nichols, Morrison, Arnold, Beck, Bersted, Karp, Hayfield, Wise.

Third Row: Tyson, Hill, Cl _y, Stout, Beatty, Niday, Zeller, Dieter, Wade, Shirk, Decker, Snavely, Fruth, Wendel, Knight, Eger.

Pianist: Virginia Tyler.

Is it the singing of birds? No, the Girls' Glee Club is practicing one of its beautiful and harmonious renditions of a group of songs.

It isn't simply the fact that there are excellent singers among them that makes these girls a success, but also the fact that they are willing to put forth a persistent effcrt to attain success.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB . .

First Row: Keyes, Wendel, Wetherill, Harrison, Hakes, Fruth, Franklin, Mann, LeComte, Clark, Peter, Myers, Estes.

Second Row: Rhoades, Bates, Le Comte, Bercaw, Brubaker, Ward, Bulley, Switzer, Zuelzke, Nichols, Mann.

Third Row: Rupert, Patterson, French, Rose, Hunker, Boroughf, Franklin, Kinnaman, Reinhard, Iler, Ward, Kidd, Brink, Zemer.

Accompanist: June Isabelle Myers.

The members of the Boys' Glee Club this year again earned their share of vocal honors. They proved themselves to be thoroughly in earnest in their singing. They took part in the operetta, "Kentucky Garden", sang for the Farmers' Institute, and on several other occasions were greatly enjoyed by those who were fortunate enough to hear them. Mr. Fisher is justly proud of the voices of this group.

MIXED CHORUS . .

First Row: Peter, Myers, Tyler, Mr. Fisher.

Second Row: Tyson, Herbert, France, Welling, B. Miller, Bercaw, Brubaker, Woods, Boroughf, Bates, Myers, Rupert, Keyes, Dennis, Schlosser, Rothenbuhler, Workley, Knight, Trudel.

Third Row: Clarey, Stout, P. Miller, Echelbarger, Forbess, LeComte, Reinhard, Rose, Hakes, Patterson, Rhoades, Hayfield, Smith, Karp, Chandler, Boggess, Cooper.

Fourth Row: Hill, Smith, Beatty, Sampson, Smith, Adams, Hunker, Wetherill, Harrison, Clark, French, Brink, Wendel, Zuelzke, Price, Ohls, Omlor, Eger, Dieter, Beck, Wise.

Sixth Row: Bersted, Creeger, Sheward, Turner, Huffman, Shirk, Ward, Mann, Kisabeth, Logsdon, Franklin, Switzer, Nichols, Estes, Pillsburg, Zeller, Brink, Wade, Wendel, Mansfield, Decker, Lee, Smith, Volkmer, Beeson.

Seventh Row: Nichols, Thomas, Smith, Morris, Stoddard, Raymont, Lee, Shrider, Clark, Duffield, Kinnaman, Iler, Shauder, Bulley, Zemer, Cook, Turner, Stagger, Souder, Wank, Sauler, Knepper, Flechtner, Shiff, Saliers.

The Mixed Chorus this year produced one of the outstanding chapters of the school's musical achievements. Under the able direction of Wallace T. Fisher, this chorus attained much recognition and provided enjoyment for many people. The organization very successfully presented a thrilling operetta "In a Kentucky Garden" and inspiringly aided the community chorus in the interpretation of the great masterpiece, "The Messiah". Their rendition of the Hallelujah Chorus will long be remembered by those who attended this spectacular performance.

FOOTBALL . .

Undefeated! Untied! The Fostoria High Redmen completed one of their most successful seasons since 1920 by going through ten games without a defeat. Whipping most of the big schools in the Northwestern and Central districts, they became rated as number two in the state by leading sports authorities. They scored 295 points to their opponents' 25 and they carried the ball a little over 2 miles throughout the games during the season.

This season's success can be attributed to the boys' complete cooperation with the coaches. Fostoria had no outstanding stars, but did have 34 boys who wanted to play football and who didn't seem to have heard the word defeat.

COACHES . .

Since Coach Trubey's arrival three years ago and Ass't Coach Lewis' coming a year later, football has been on the upward trend. This year their undefeated and untied team was classed as one of the best in the state. That is not all. What is more important yet, they help build up character and mind.

CHEERLEADERS . .

Throughout the football and basketball season, these seven cheerleaders put pep and fire into both the team and the student body. During the cool nights of the football season the cheerleaders kept the student body on its feet, yelling for the team, unmindful of the biting air.

It is these boys who do the many things unseen by the public that help a good football team be better. These fellows keep the suits in the best of condition. They oil shoes, tighten cleats, wash headgears, clean balls, and do a million and one other things that go into keeping a football team looking fit.

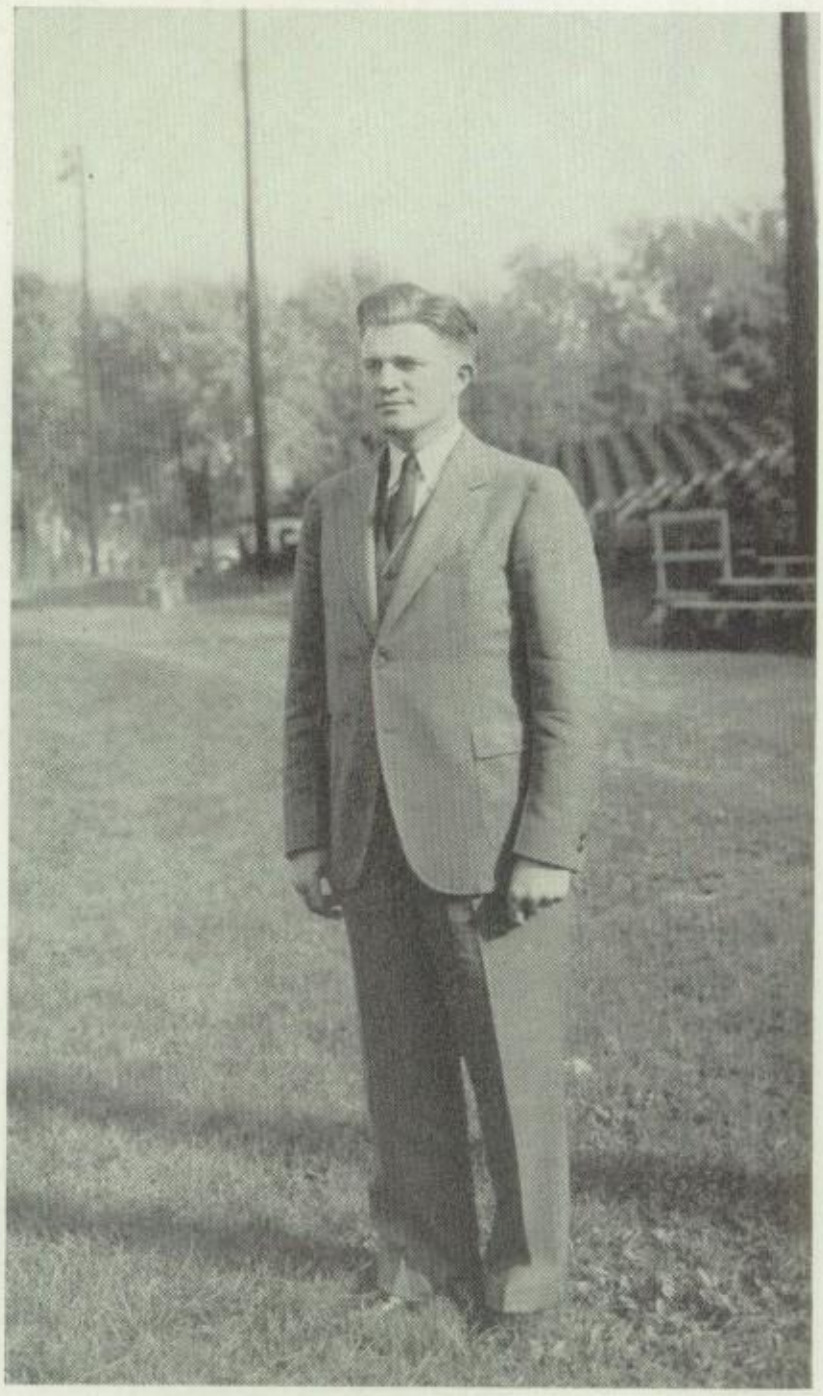
The trainers have a very important role to play in producing good football teams. They see that a boy keeps himself in the peak of physical condition. They rub, swab, and bandage after every scrimmage. Before the games, they are lost in yards of tape that they finally manage to get on the players' bodies.



Byron Stearns

W. W. Nixon

Mr. Nixon, as Senior High faculty manager, and Mr. Stearns, as Junior High faculty manager, have done a great deal to further athletics in the school. They were always on hand to make certain that the game came off smoothly and should be congratulated on their very effective work.

Top Row: Maurer, Stoddard, Alge, Munger, Atwell, Williams, Shuman, Haines, Rouse, Delgado, Hutchins, Youngston.
Second Row: Mr. Zumpft, Molter, Westner, Alley, Timanus, Barringer, Wagner, Smith, Emerine, Tyson, Coach Milo Treese.
Third Row: Gardner, Gockerman, Anderson, Imber, Alge, Russel, Birdwhistle, Coe, Lee, Hendericks, Mr. Stearns.

JUNIOR HIGH FOOTBALL . .

Although they only played three games this year, the Jr. High Football team gave notice to everyone that they know something about the game. Most of their time was spent in learning the fundamentals of football, so that when they reach the varsity coach they will be prepared to go into the more scientific points, that usually make winning teams.

Their season's record shows one win, one loss, and one tie. Besides playing these games they often scrimmaged the varsity, and showed up quite well.

JUNIOR HIGH COACHES

These men were put in charge of the Jr. High Squad because they are well versed in the basic rules of the game. They teach the boys the proper way to block and tackle and help them build up their bodies both mentally and physically. Although they get very little credit for it, they are usually the ones that start our championship varsity teams on the right path.

BASKETBALL . .

COACH ROLFES

Mr. Rolfes has made an imposing record at Fostoria with his basketball teams. They have made an outstanding impression on the people of the town by their "never say die" spirit which pulls them through many a game on the long end of the score.

Combining height and speed, this year's basketball team turned in a very creditable record by winning 10 games and reaching the finals of the district tournament. After playing their regular season of 16 games and winning only 7 games, the varsity boys entered the district tournament where they made a startling comeback by defeating three strong teams before tasting defeat in the finals. As a reward for reaching the finals, they received a large trophy, and a silver belt buckle for each individual member.

Hampered as usual by the small F.H.S. gym, the varsity met disastrous results when they played on the large floor of the opponents. However, they did show the Fostoria fighting spirit and didn't quit until the final gun sounded. In twenty games, they rolled up 715 points for an average of 35 points, an excellent record for a high school team.

JR. HIGH CHEERLEADERS

The Jr. High cheerleaders are learning the trade from the bottom up. Carefully watching the Varsity cheerleaders at the big games, they practice daily. When the Jr. High boys play a game, they get out and strut their stuff, and are they good! Jumping and yelling, they put spirit in their schoolmates. That makes winning teams.

James Youngston, Albert Gardner, Ivan Maurer.

JR. HIGH MANAGERS

Jr. High is the training ground for varsity managers. To earn a varsity letter, a manager must have a good knowledge of all the equipment the players wear and use. Few people realize it, but the teams can't get along without these boys. Not everyone can be a good manager. A few reliable boys are chosen in the Jr. High years and are trained for varsity managers.

First Row—Carl Rouse, Glenn Windsor, Wilbur Anderson, Bob Barringer, Don Feisel, Manager Albert Gardner.

JR. HIGH BASKETBALL

Under the tutelage of Coach Normand Jones, this year's Junior High basketball team turned in a very creditable showing. Winning five out of ten games, they showed great promise for future years. Congratulations to Coach Jones on his first attempt at coaching.

SENIOR G. A. A. . .

First Row: Marie Zeller, Jeanne Hall, Eunice Flechtner, Theo Groman, Ruth Bersted, Maxine Wank, Lillian Rader, Ruth Beeson.

Second Row: Norma Deerwester, Josephine Whitman, Jeanne Sayre, Betty Crow, Dorothy Wineland, Jean Stout, Mamie Shiff, Jane Culp, Avis Kint.

Miss Wilma Miller

The Senior Girls' Athletic Association, under the leadership of Miss Miller, has had a year filled to capacity. For the first time in its history, this organization sponsored a play-day inviting many schools to attend. Another important project this year was the biennial circus which interests the whole student body. Aside from these, inter-class basketball and baseball tournaments are held each year. The aim of the G. A. A. girls is to foster clean play and good sports.

JUNIOR G. A. A. . .

The Junior Girls' Athletic Association composed of seventh, eighth, and ninth graders, had a most interesting and successful year under the leadership of Miss Miller. The activities of the year included hikes, play nights, and sports parties.

The girls worked for their merit badges and pins by competing in different types of sports and contests. Like the older group of girls in Sr. G. A. A., these girls strive to be good sports and always honest in play.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL . .

Sitting—Virginia Brookover, Betty Crow, Dorothy Wineland.

Standing—Dorothy Madden, Anna Foster, Betty Peters, Esther Davis.

During the months of January and February, girls were seen dashing around the gym in multi-colored shorts. They were getting ready for the girls' basketball tournament sponsored by G. A. A. The final contest was played between two senior teams, whose captains were Mary Hitchcock and Betty Crowe. The latter's team was victorious.

YOU think of Commencement as the end of something; but the occasion is none the less named correctly, for you are entering upon a new and much more serious phase of life.

The Commercial Bank and Savings Co. adds its congratulations to those you are receiving from other sources and hopes you will remember its readiness to be of service.

Originality is a quality of the imagination. It is the ability to take the usual elements of picture and story and present them to your student body in a new, different and interesting fashion. Our School Service organization has long been noted for its true originality in Year Book planning.
